

DILLI CHALO!

CIMA Gallery's Affordable Art Fair

COMES TO THE CAPITAL

Is this queue for an IPL match or for a Shah Rukh Khan film? Er, it's for Art.

CIMA ART MELA is that one event for which Calcutta queues up from six o'clock in the morning for the gallery doors to open at 11 o'clock. CIMA ART MELA is that one event for which Calcutta waits all year. That's been the story ever since it was unveiled in 2008. And now, ART MELA -- the largest affordable art fair in the country -- is coming to you in Delhi!

Get to browse and buy original art by India's most well-known artists and also the most exciting emerging artists -- all at astonishingly affordable prices. CIMA's intention is to take art into the general public. To reach art lovers who want to begin collecting and also learn about art and artists.

ART MELA is a great starting point – it makes art accessible to the viewer and the collector. It informs, educates and sets out to reveal that good art is not only for the elite. Many of the young artists at ART MELA are national awardees and CIMA Award winners. All art has been screened and selected by CIMA's curatorial team.

ART MELA is not about “you get what you pay for”; here, you get much more!

Part of the proceeds will be donated to the Art and Heritage Foundation, the non-profit wing of CIMA, and used for various projects to benefit artists and promote art and culture.
